

Blitman & King LLP

is pleased to announce that

April 2018

Ginger B. LaChapelle and Daniel R. Brice

have been elected co-chairs of the Blitman & King LLP Employee Benefits Law Practice Group.

Co-chairs Ginger LaChapelle and Dan Brice possess over 30 years of combined experience counseling sponsors of multiemployer and single-employer benefit plans on all matters relating to compliance with applicable federal and state laws. They regularly advise on the design and operation of all types of retirement and welfare benefit plans, including qualified and non-qualified arrangements, in addressing the needs of their clients.

As a leader in the employee benefits industry, the Employee Benefits Law Practice Group uses its comprehensive knowledge and technical skills to assist clients with complex and significant benefit matters. In addition to their benefits compliance expertise, the Practice Group includes Benefits Litigation, Cybersecurity Law, and Fiduciary Responsibility & Investments Teams. These Teams consist of accomplished ERISA, tax, and employee benefits attorneys who have the capacity to handle the full spectrum of benefit issues.
